Dear London Commuter

- Tango is an expression of compassion and connectivity.
- TangoCommuting is musical hugging between two commuters across the UK capital.
- Today TangoCommuters are dancing on 7 London Bridges and in 7 London train stations, between 6 and 7pm to inspire their citizens
- TangoCommuting is about generating joy and putting a smile on commuters' faces.
- Share your experience of the day by sending your thoughts, images, videos, texts directly to share@tango commute.com or visit popular social networking sites.
- If you have questions visit www.tango commute.com/media.html

Please note that TangoCommute organisers can not take any responsibility or liability for your participation in the event. Please tango commute as a distributed, compassionate, connected and considered social network. Give way to passing commuters, circulate and dissipate.
